Hardware Concepts

1. Identify the brand and model of the personal computer (or laptop) that you own:

2. What operating system do you use? What version of the operating system? How do you find that information?

3. How much internal disk storage does your computer have? How do you find that information?

4. How much main memory does your computer have? How do you find that information?

5. What is the speed of the processor in your computer? How do you find that information?

6. What are the two storage units after Petabyte?

7. What is "Moore's Law"?